

Haartman Seminars November – December 2014

Thursdays at 2.15 pm at Haartman Institute, Lecture hall 2
Coffee will be served at 2.00 pm; unless otherwise stated

6.11.	Special Seminar: Ebola
at 3:30 pm hall 1	Olli Vapalahti	Zoonosis Professor, Univ. of Helsinki, Haartman Institute and Veterinary Microbiology, HUSLAB	Ebola virus: origins, spread, detection
	Asko Järvinen	Chief Physician at HUS Meilahti Hospital	Ebola preparedness in Finland – tested
	Tiina Saarikoski	Nurse, MSc in Disaster Relief Nursing, Health Adviser in International Operations and Programmes, Finnish Red Cross	Personal experiences on the Ebola outbreak in West Africa
13.11.	Mataleena Parikka	Institute of Biomedical Technology, University of Tampere	Mycobacterial infections in zebrafish
20.11.	Antti Lavikainen	Haartman Institute, University of Helsinki	Phylogeny of taeniid tapeworms
27.11. hall 1	Arno Hänninen	University of Turku	Diet, microbes and gut in autoimmune type 1 diabetes
4.12.	Kari Airene	University of Eastern Finland	Baculovirus-cell interaction in gene delivery
11.12. hall 1	Vilja Pietiäinen	HY, FIMM	Imaging of Cell Phenotypes in Translational Biomedicine
18.12.	Maija Vihinen-Ranta	University of Jyväskylä	Compaction and reorganization of host chromatin in Herpes simplex virus 1 infected cells